Dowlen Not To Seek Reelection

Glenn Dowlen, Randall County Commissioner of Precinct 3, announced Monday he will not seek reelection next year.

Dowlen, who will end 22 years as commissioner, will be 70 years old next year.

He said Monday he decided last year not to run again for the office.

"I told many people last year I would not run again," he declared. "And I will not seek the office again."

The long-time Democratic commissioner has never had an opponent.

"It is just time I step out and let younger men run the county," Dowlen explained.

Other offices open for election next year will be commissioner of precinct 1, presently held by Jim Fletcher of Tanglewood; county tax assessor-collector held by Mrs. Aubrey Bruse; and Randall County sheriff, held by L.S. "Slim" Johnston.

Filing for any of these positions can be done through the county party chairmen, according to county clerk Leroy Hutton.

Marion Bruse is Democratic County Chairman and Dick Brooks is Republican County Chairman. Deadline for filing is 6 p.m. February 7, 1972.

Primary election will be the first Sautrday in May followed by the runoff election of the first Saturday in June.

General election will be Nov. 7, 1972.

Buffs To Face Idaho Vandals

The Idaho Vandals will be trying to extend their win streak to five Saturday night when they meet the West Texas State University Buffaloes.

The Vandals were demolished in their season opener against Boise State and then were dropped by Iowa State in their second encounter, but the Vandals have not lost one since.

It will be the first meeting of the two schools, but not the head coaches. Don Robbins, in his third year at Idaho, was the head coach at Big Spring High School when Gene Mayfield was at Odessa Permian.

"They have a better football team than Northern Illinois, not individually, but as a team," commented Mayfield. "They are very comparable to New Mexico A & M. Offensively they are a very balanced team."

At a Monday night booster club meeting Mayfield said, "They use a defense that will bother us some. They line up eight men on or near the line and just come a foggin'. I am kind of worried about that right now."

Talking of the offensive line he went on, "We are getting off the line (offensive) much better now though.

Injury-wise the Buffs were not hurt badly in their game against the Huskies. Safety Mike Hrncir suffered a bruised knee, but will probably not be slowed any by game time Saturday night. Defensive tackle David Denny re-injured his knee, and although he may be

Bomb Threat Empties CHS

Canyon High School was emptied for 25 minutes Wednesday morning following a bomb threat made to a school employee.

High school principal John Sommer said Mrs. Dorothea Green, cafeteria supervisor, received a phone call at 9:10 a.m. and the male caller said, "There is a bomb in the school."

School officials immediately alerted Randall County sheriff deputies and the Canyon police department and all students left the building.

After a thorough search of the entire high school complex students returned to classes.

"We found nothing after searching everything thoroughly," said Sommer immediately following the incident.

Canyon High School Eagle band presented a morning concert on the high school lawn while the bomb search was going on inside.

Legion Sets Breakfast

All ex-servicemen and their families have been invited to attend the 49th Annual American Legion Breakfast to be served from 7 to 8:30 a.m. Monday at the Canyon Community Center.

Post Commander J.W. Kleinschmidt said that no charge is to be made and that the Legion will be serving a full breakfast--bacon and eggs and the usual accompaniments.

School Tax Roll Okayed

Canyon Independent School district tax roll was approved Tuesday night at the regular meeting of the board.

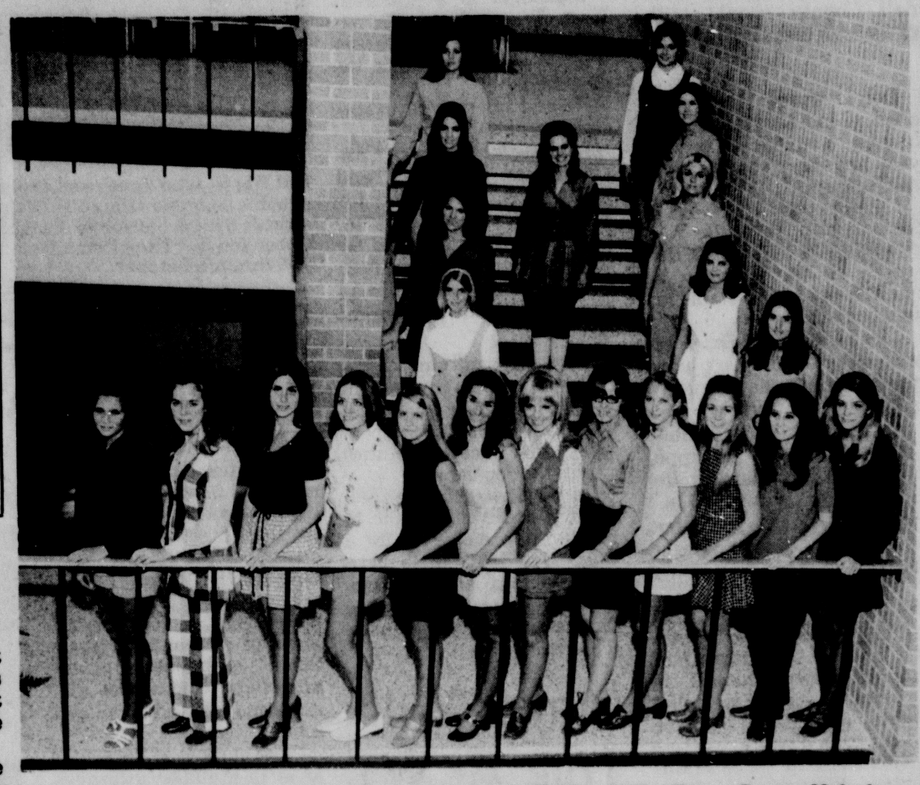
Supt. Jerry Jacobs told the board 100 per cent valuation of personal and real property in the district for 1971 totalled $152,254,890. The 40 per cent valuation for personal and real property was $60,901,910, which is a $2 million increase over last year.

Personal property amounted to $17,498,620, and real property was $43,403,290.

Total amount expected to be collected--not including discounts allowed--is $1,004,881.52, according to Conway Kuykendall, tax assessor-collector for the school district.

Board members also discussed a joint meeting tonight with Canyon City Commissioners to review the tax office procedures.

L.H. Brotherton, director of the school buses, presented a report showing number of buses and number of students transported by the school vehicles.



These 22 West Texas State University coeds are competing for the title of Miss WTSU. Governor, Banquets Parade, Ball Game

"The Awakening of a University" is underway on the WTSU campus as Homecoming activities begin today.

Groups are preparing for the Homecoming parade which begins at 3 p.m. Saturday. The procession will start at the square, travel east down Fourth Ave., turn north on Twenty-sixth Street, turn east on Spur 48 and disband at the Activities Center.

Governor Preston Smith, Honorary Parade Marshal, and L. S. (Slim) Johnston, Randall County Sheriff and Parade Marshal, will lead the traditional parade.

The 13 floats will be judged at the square in fraternity, sorority, independent, and over-all categories.

Eight high school bands will join the WTSU band to march in the Parade. The bands are from Canyon High School, Plains High School, Tascosa High School, Tulia High School, Alamo Catholic High School, Ralls High School, Canadian High School, and Perryton High School.

Following the parade is a barbeque supper in the East Dining Hall. WTSU band members will begin eating at 4 p.m. and others may eat at 5 p.m. The supper is free to band members and students who are on the 19-meal plan. The cost to all others is $1.50.

Two WT exes will be honored as Distinguished Alumni at a banquet at 6:30 p.m. Friday in the East Dining Hall. They are Raymond Thompson, ('26), president of the First State Bank of Vega and B. Raymond Evans ('46), president of Taylor-Evans Seed Company and chief officers of several related firms. The Distinguished Alumni awards are presented by the ex-student Board of Directors.

Friday night 24 contestants will participate in the second annual Miss WTSU pageant. Judging will begin at 8:30 p.m. and admission is $1 with a WT ID and $1.50 without one.

Culminating the Homecoming activities will be the football game against Idaho University at 8 p.m. in Buffalo Bowl.

Rains Slow Milo Harvest

Heavy rains and high winds poured cold water on crop prospects this week for Randall County farmers.

With moisture ranging from an inch to more than 3 inches, milo fields remained too wet for combines and the spotty hail that ripped through parts of the county Sunday night did some damage.

Randall County agent John Brazzil said the rains would not make any major difference in the crop picture, although harvesting would be delayed for several days.

"We will be slow when harvesting is resumed, and there will be some loss," he explained.

Brazzil also predicted frost at any time and noted that crops that have not reached maturity by now will be too late probably.

Highway department workers spent Monday morning cleaning off roads at Palo Duro Canyon State Park, where some seven feet of water raced across the crossings Sunday night.

Park officials said 3.2 inches of rain drenched the canyon sending waters raging along the creek beds. By early Monday the water had dropped to a foot at crossing 1.

Elon Baker, park superintendent, said the water was the most he had seen at the crossings.

Canyon received 1½ inches of moisture Sunday

Monday Is Holiday

Randall County courthouse, both Canyon banks and the post office will be closed Monday in observance of Veterans Day.

County officials said the courthouse would be closed for the one day holiday, and the West Texas State Bank and the First National Bank both will take the day off.

LeRoy Moreland, post master, said the post office would also observe the holiday.

Museum Gets Paintings

A distinguished Japanese artist and prince will formally present six of his large wall screen paintings to the people of Texas and the United States at a ceremony Saturday.

Artist Tenkei Tachibana of Tokyo, whose royal family association name is Prince Yoshihito Yozen, will personally deliver the gifts at a 4:30 p.m. ceremony in the art gallery of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum on the campus of West Texas State University.

He said he plans to give all of his wall screen paintings, about 30 in number, "as a national art treasure for the people of the United States" through the university.

Dr. James P. Cornette, university president, said no monetary value can be placed on the paintings because none has ever been sold. The paintings vary in size from 7.2 feet in height and 36 feet in length to the one he finished last year which was 8 by 48 feet.

The invaluable gifts resulted from a friendship begun sereral years ago between Tachibana and Dr. Corn-

In Buff Press Box

Silence Golden

By BENNY TURNER

Buff quarterback Ron Leach rips off 65 yards for a touchdown and the 11,000 Buffalo fans roar with glee, but high above the spectators perched on the edge of the stands there is almost no sound inside the press box except the quiet clattering of a few scattered typewriters and the muffled mumbling of a few scouts.

During the 60 minutes of a West Texas State University football game some 60 or so people work in silence in the press box.

Seven persons consisting of a chemical supplies salesman, a high school coach, a postal employee, a television newscaster, an outdoor sign salesman, the vice president of an insurance company and others keep an accurate play by play account of the game.

Just minutes after the finish of each quarter each member of the working press receives a typewritten, mimeographed play-by-play account of that particular quarter.

At half time the press receives a play-by-play account of the second quarter and total statistics up to that time. Shortly after the final gun members of the press receives total statistics, the tackle charts, individual statistics and short quotes from each coach.

The seven persons who do this work receive a nominal salary, but the main reason is they just enjoy football. Most of the stats crew have done the job from three to six

At Levelland

Eagles Open District

The Canyon Eagles will head into district play Friday night after having come out on top of the roughest pre-conference schedule an Eagle team has ever faced.

The Eagles took a breather last week to prepare for the Levelland Lobos, who have suffered only one district loss on home grounds in the last two years.

"They have a great line," head Eagle coach Ron Mills commented." They are especially strong defensively.

The Lobos returned both an all-district fullback and their starting quarterback from last year and potentially have a very strong offensive unit. Mills said, "They have looked good this year, but they haven't scored much."

After having used Chuck Wright at quarterback exclusively for four pre-conference games, the Eagle coaching staff elected to use Mike Shadix some in their last game against Pampa.

"Shadix will quarterback some for us against Levelland," Mills said, "We will probably be alternating quarterbacks quite a bit in the game. Bill Moore may also see some action (at quarterback)."

Earlier in the season Mills said that playing such a rough pre-conference scheduled could be good, but it also might prove harmful. Now that those five games are completed Mills, summed it up saying, "Since we got through the games without any serious injuries I think the scheduled helped us. When we were playing the real strong teams our very green defense showed up and hurt us, but we got some real good experience and I don't think our boys would be afraid to face anybody now."

Mills added that he was very pleased with the Eagles attitude and effort throughout the pre-conference schedule.

"We are still making a lot of mistakes, but from here on out we will be playing the best people we have both ways. We did not do that during pre-conference. We were trying to give our boys some experience."

Time and again Mills emphasized the strength of the Levelland line, but left some doubt as to the effectiveness of the Lobo backfield.

"They are strong at home," Mills said as he looked to coach Roy Winters for a confirmation of that fact. "They have had only

FROM THE CANYON RIM

Up to now I'm not impressed with the Metro Squad.

If the Metro Squad is going to work it has to be headed up by an expert and a professional. Events of recent days have led me to believe that if the Metro Squad is to be retained it should come under much closer scrutiny in the future than it has in the past.

If that expensive group has done anything noteworthy since it was established last spring it hasn't come to light yet. Metro people captured a still recently but I seriously doubt that the low-grade white lightning it was turning out posed much of a threat to the area.

This was a Treasury Department job and should have been handled by T-Men anyway. A few pawns in the dope trade have been arrested but so far we haven't had a look at a single major supplier.

These suppliers are the people who are corrupting our youth. These are the people who should be stopped. I am not even saying that they can be stopped but I do believe we can give it a better try.

Pulling members of the Metro Squad from the ranks of various law enforcement agencies was the first major mistake.

Joe Bowes heads up the Metro Squad. Joe Bowes is Amarillo Police Chief Wiley Alexander's man and the influence of both these men permeates the Metro Squad.

Theoretically the Metro Squad is operated by a five-man board but the Amarillo Police Department--Bowes and Alexander have charge of actual operation.

A lot of the people in this area are not satisfied with the leadership of the Amarillo Police Department.

Until the Metro Squad was formed it wasn't any business of area people how the Amarillo Police Department was run or who was running it.

But when Canyon and Randall County as well as West Texas State University became contributors to operation of the Metro Squad and when jurisdiction of the Metro extended over the entire area, leadership of the Amarillo Police Department became very much the business of area people.

Frankly, I don't think we're getting our money's worth out of the Metro Squad and I think that if there aren't some radical changes Canyon and Randall County should withdraw from that elite body.

Don't worry too much about Gene Mayfield. He's having a tough year this year and next year may be just as tough.

He plays his own brand of football and naturally he's not going to do as well this season as he will when he has had time to assemble his own personnel.

Give him a couple of years and our problem won't be so much winning as it will be holding on to Mayfield.

As we've learned, Gene Mayfield is not an apple polishing, flim flam man. He is a man of few words. He calls a spade a spade but when he speaks he speaks the truth.

Isn't it just like West Texas — either it's raining too much or it's too dry.

I was talking to Joe Mercer, Mrs. H.R. Fulton's dad, who is a cotton farmer from Silverton. "If this wet weather keeps up three more days it will all be gone," he said sadly of his cotton crop.

Buffalo Lake has been restocked with channel cat. People from Hereford deny that their feed lots are polluting the lake but Buffalo Lake was a good fishing place until the feed lots were established in its drainage area.

Anyway, I hope the channel cat live to pan size.

Wineinger Joins Sheriff's Office

A 27-year-old man has joined the Randall County Sheriff's Department under the Emergency Employment Act as a criminal filing clerk.

Sheriff L.S. "Slim" Johnston said Roger Wineinger of Amarillo began working for his department Friday, Oct. 15.

Wineinger is a junior at West Texas State University, and will work 44 hours weekly at the sheriff's department.

He and his wife have one child.

Wineinger has been a Canyon police patrolman and was parts manager for Imperial Chevrolet in Canyon. He has also worked for the engineering department of the Santa Fe Railroad and was in the restaurant business.

Johnston said part of the new employee's duties will include keeping records, helping with the civil papers and other responsibilities within the department.

Under the act, Randall County received $6,000 to pay the new employee for a year. The job had to be a new position and the employee had to be unemployed for at least 30 days before he could be eligible.

Mayor Will Talk At WT

Amarillo Mayor Ray Vahue will speak to the Society for the Advancement of Management at 12:15p.m. Tuesday in room 101 of the WTSU University Complex South. The talk is open to the public.

On Nov. 9, the group will hear Jim Pratt, news director for KVII-TV. That talk will be in room 101 of the UCS at 12:15 p.m. also.

Bill Rhew, who developed the process for throwing photographic images on the cliffs of the Palo Duro Canyon demonstrates with projector to Raul Sturm, who plays the part of Coronado in "They Came from Spain," playing in the Canyon through October.

Securities Specialists Will Speak At WTSU

Five specialists in the field of Securities Exchange Commission regulations highlight a seminar on the registration of securities Saturday at West Texas State University.

The one-day seminar, presented by the Department of Accounting of the School of Business at the university, commences at 9 a.m. and will adjourn at 5 p.m.

"The purpose of the seminar is to acquaint attorneys, accountants, bankers, securities salesmen, students, faculty and other interested parties with the requirements of registering securities with the SEC prior to their sale to the public," said Arthur Glover, assistant professor of accounting.

ANDREW BARR

Glover said more than 100 advance registrations had been received and about 300 persons were expected. The seminar will be conducted in the Activities Center ballroom.

State regulation for registering securities will not be dealt with at this seminar, Glover said.

Five discussion sessions with question and answer periods to follow will be held.

The panelists are James M. House, Amarillo attorney; Andrew Barr, chief accountant for the SEC in Washington; Edmund L. Jenkins, partner in Arthur Andersen & Co. of Chicago, an international public accounting firm; Joe Low, vice president of investment banking for Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith of New York; and Richard Hewitt, attorney and enforcement counsel with the Fort Worth regional office of the SEC.

Registration fee is $2 for WTSU students and faculty and $20 for others. However, the $20 fee includes the price of a luncheon in the East Dining Hall.

Our World

By ANN BROWN

Our Creator gave us a beautiful, orderly, productive world, and He wants us to enjoy it. Very few do. Why?

Our Creator also gave us a Map to guide us safely through this earthly journey. Should we complain about the way if we ignore the map?

Akbar, the great Mogul emperor said, "I have lived a long time, but I have yet to see a man lost on a straight road."

Hippies constantly disparage the "straight people." It's true the people on the straight road miss some exciting detours, but they also avoid some disastrous pitfalls.

Life is much like a piano. One man sits down and brings soul-stirring ear-pleasing harmony from the keys; another produces jangling, irritating discord. No one blames the piano.

Life is stormy-true. And people usually face it as they do any storm: Some sit down, hide their heads, and wait for it to be over. Others face it with courage and determination, and enjoy the beauty and majesty of the elements.

All who have been given the precious gift of life have the ingredients for happiness, but the mixture is left to each individual.

No good cook would be without cookbooks. And no traveler would set out on an unfamiliar journey without a map. But neither recipe nor roadmap is of any value unless read and followed.

Life should be an exciting new adventure for every traveler with each new day. When it isn't, it could be that one is not on the right road.

When all else fails, read directions.

Happiness is a paradox; the more we give away, the more we have to keep for ourselves. And misery works exactly the same way.

Life eventually rewards each traveler with happiness or misery in about the same measure that he dispenses those attributes.

Even the bitterest agnostic does not deny that God's Guidebook would lead to happiness if all men followed it. One of its admonitions is "bear ye one another's burdens."

A couple of young honeymooners set out to enjoy God's Good Earth. On the foolish advice of an American tourist they met in London, they attempted to hitchhike across America.

Near Amarillo, the husband was shot, and the honeymooners were robbed of their possessions by a man who had given them a ride.

The young people are on their way home, carrying permanent injuries and a mountain of debt.

Americans cannot remove the injuries inflicted on these unfortunate guests, or erase the nightmare they have suffered. But it would be so easy for the good people of this area to each send at least a dollar to the First National Bank of Amarillo, so the Takahashis could go home free of debt.

If you want some happiness, try giving some away.

Don't complain about the trials of the journey until you have checked the Map to be sure you are on the right road.

Bond To Talk To Students

D.W. Bond, Jr., industrial relations director of the Cabot Corp., Pampa, was to relate his business experiences to School of Business students at West Texas State University Wednesday (Oct.20).

Bond, a graduate chemical engineer, is one of a series of guest lectures arranged by the Council of Executive Consultants to the School of Business.

He is responsible for the Cabot Corp.'s domestic employee and labor relations, safety and training and Western Region employment.

Active in Pampa civic affairs, he also is a member of the 1971-72 Bureau of National Affairs Personnel Policies Forum.

Junior High Grid Games Canceled

The Canyon seventh and eighth grade Purple team's games with Tulia that were to be held Tuesday night here were canceled, as was the ninth grade white team's game.

The two reports were sent from the County home demonstration agent and the county agent.

Gene Howe News

BY PAULINE HEFLEY

Congratulations to our "swift" Coach Bruce Winn at Gene and his lovely wife on the birth of a baby boy.

Congratulations to our "swift" Coach Bruce Winn at Gene Howe and his lovely wife on the birth of a baby boy. Here comes a double flash - FLASH, FLASH!!

The annual Gene Howe Chili Supper will be the evening of November 12th starting at 5:PM til ... You may secure your tickets from any Gene Howe Student or at the door.

You will have an opportunity to invest $1.00 for big bodies and tickets for the little people (pre-schoolers) may be purchased at the door for only 35¢. Upon purchase of a ticket you will be entitled to enjoy an evening of fratinazations with all the other Gene Howe patrons and some real good eating. This year you will not only have chili, but hot dogs will be offered also, and along with this will go beans, your drink, and a piece of homemade pie. As you may surmise, the students at Gene Howe are getting real excited and a prize will be offered to the top salesman in the first, second, and third grades, and also a prize for the winner in the fourth thru sixth grades. But the real motivation for the kiddoes is the room with the highest sales will have a split party. So, yall, plan to take the little wifie out and get your tickets now for the Chili supper on the 12th.

Happy Birthday to David Finke.

Congratulations to the "White" team of the Canyon Junior High Football who won their game "in the rain" on Tuesday with La Plata from Hereford with a final score of 10 to 0. Many of the good guys on this team are from the Gene Howe area and we are really proud of you.

Congratulations to Shelly Dozier upon being elected 8th grade representative to the Student Council.

Congratulations to the Fourth Grade Gene Howe Falcons who won their game with Eastridge Tuesday evening in the rain. Understand they were all muddy and cold but the final score was 13 to 0 and we are surely proud of you boys. By the bye, we hope little Gene Aduddell is perking right along after suffering a broken collar bone from one of the football games.

Happy Birthday to Dale Young.

Our sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Piner "Pat" Stevens on the faculty at Gene Howe in the loss of her grandson, James Olin Brown in Canyon. Little Baby Brown died on October 15th and Pat, we are all thinking of you in your time of loss.

A Big "Howdy" to Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McCurry who are the folks of the spiffy George McCurry on Arden Lane and are visiting the McCurrys from Fort Worth.

This body saw several of the Canyon teachers last week when the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, Women's Division, hosted a tour of the Health Facilities in Amarillo for area educators. One of the place we toured was the State Rehabilitation Center adjacent to High Plains Baptist Hospital. As many of you know, our own Dick Balke is Director of this lovely new facility and we all toured on Thursday and they had just moved in on Monday. Seems like only yesterday they were having groundbreaking ceremonies for the building. We are certainly proud to have the Balkes in our community and that particular Center has many far-reaching effects. Thanks, Dick, for your continued good work.

Our sincere sympathy is extended to the Walter Burkharts who are now receiving this paper at their new home in Arkansas. The humiliation of the Razorbacks beating the Longhorns would have made me want to have put on sack cloth and ashes--hope you held your own Walter, Norma and Suzan.

Happy Birthday to Arlene Todd.

Understand that Becky Newman is sporting a lovely diamond ring. Who's the lucky fellow, Becky?

A cher

A cheery "Hello" to Frank Hanson and we hope you are feeling a bit better dearheart.

Happy Birthday to Kenneth Cates.

Gotta sign off - get your news to me. 376-9853 or 352-2089, thanks. Borrowed from Reverend Leon Hill..."If you want to be a big Flea, you have to travel with big dogs."....pmh

Willingham Switches To Defense Position

West Texas State fans probably remember Ron Willingham best as the shuttle mate of former offensive flanker Robert Jackson during the previous two seasons.

Former coach Joe Kerbel used Willingham, a senior from Pasadena, Tex., and Jackson as alternate wide receivers.

But this past spring, new head mentor Gene Mayfield plotted a different strategy for Willingham—a starting position at one of the defensive cornerbacks.

It was a strange transaction for Willingham, for the last time he had played on the defensive team was his junior year at Pasadena High School.

"I have lettered two years at flanker and it took a while for me to get used to playing defense again," Willing ham said.

"The defense is so much different than the offense in every phase, but I think I'm finally gitting the hang of things."

Adapted he has, too. He leads the team in interceptions with two.

When Willingham was a high school senior, his Pasadena team reached the quarter finals.

"I only got to play one game that year before I got hurt," grimaced Willingham. "Only four schools offered me scholarships and West Texas State was the best of the four, so I chose to go here."

Like all of his Buffalo teammates, Willingham feels that this year's team will show improvement as the season progresses. "We'll come back and win some games. This team has tremendous character and we will prove to everybody that we aren't losers."

Mayfield Criticizes WT-NI Game Officials

Head WTSU coach Gene Mayfield criticized the officiating of the Buffalo-Northern Illinois game in a Monday night meeting of the Buffalo Booster Club.

Mayfield said that there were three Missouri Valley Conference officials and two Midwestern Conference officials. (The Huskies are members of the Midwestern Conference.)

The Buff mentor said that every one of the penalties called against the Buffs in that tilt were called by the two Midwestern officials. Those penalties totaled 100 yards. He also pointed out that the Huskies had only one foul called against them.

While showing the game film to the club members Mayfield said that in his opinion two Huskies touchdowns were really no good. He said the first TD which came after a Buff fumble was recovered out of the end zone and should have been a safety.

He went on to say that the final and deciding Huskie touchdown, which came on pass, bounced on the ground before the Northern Illnois receiver made the reception.

Mayfield said, "I will let you be the judge, but I feel like the ball bounced."

Also during the meeting Mayfield named Ron Leach and Walter Hibbler the most outstanding players of the game.

Time and again Mayfield praised the efforts of defensive end Walter Hibbler.

Speaking of Leach Mayfield said, "Sure it helped our feelings that Ron came through so good. I think it got some momentum going for us. On his 65-yard touchdown run Leach did a tremendous job of following his blockers."

Mayfield said that he felt that Idaho would run a defense against the Buffs that would give them some trouble and that he was "kind of worried about that."

The next Buff booster Club meeting will be held Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the Activities Center on the WTSU campus.

CHS '72 Schedule Drops Tulia Hornets

The recent re-alignment of many of the Panhandle grid teams will cause a vast change in the 1972 Canyon Eagle football schedule, Canyon athletic director Dunny Goode announced at the Eagle Booster Club meeting Tuesday night.

Tulia will be dropped from District 1-AAA and will be placed in the newly formed 4-AA. That will leave members of 1-AAA with only four district games next year.

Goode said that an opening game opponent has not been scheduled yet, but Borger would be the second game, Caprock the third, Hereford, fourth; Pampa, fifth; Palo Duro sixth and the seventh week will be an open date.

The Eagles will open district play in '72 with Levelland on Oct. 20 in Canyon, followed by Dumas three, Perryton here and Muleshoe there. Goode said the Nov. 17 date when Canyon and Tulia had been scheduled has been left open, and said he doubts if that spot will be filled.

Borger was scheduled to replace the Spearman game.

When asked if the Eagles were preparing to move into AAAA class Goode simply replied," Yes we are. We feel like this is a real aggressive and good schedule."

In reply to the schedule, head Eagle mentor Ron Mills replied, "We didn't feel like we could play a much tougher schedule than we did this year, but it looks like we have one," With a slight chuckle he added, "I just hope Notre Dame does not have an open spot on their schedule."

"The maximum for AAA student enrollment was raised to 1110 this year. This change was probably made to keep some teams in AAA," Goode added.

ette's wife, Mary Elizabeth, who operates The Canyon Art Gallery.

The paintings will be accepted by Gov. Preston Smith and Virgil Patterson of Amarillo, president of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society.

Under an agreement signed by Tachibana, the museum will be the repository for the paintings but they will be made available for public exhibitions in other galleries in the U.S.

Tachibana first visited the university in 1966 at which time then Gov. John Connally made him an honorary citizen of Texas and the title of honorary professor of art was bestowed upon him by West Texas State.

He returned to the university last April to lecture, demonstrate and exhibit his works. It was at the time he decided to donate his wall screen paintings to the institution.

Tachibana said "my lifelong desire has been through my art to carry beauty alive into human hearts and thus make those hearts purer."

He added that "my principal life purpose has been to develop, foster, and promote warm and friendly relations among all the people of this earth, especially in relation to my own native people of Japan."

In accepting responsibility for Tachibana's paintings, the historical society expressed in a resolution "their deepest gratitude and appreciation for his magnanimous generosity in making such a gift for the benefit of the people of Texas..."The prince was accompanied to West Texas State by his secretary, Princess Yoshiko Matsudaira, and Tadamichi Tayama, who plans to enroll in the university.

David Y. Takahara, Tokyo business executive, was expected in Canyon Wednesday to finalize the transaction.

The wall screen paintings will be put on public display for the first time from 3-5 p.m. Sunday in the museum art gallery.

Dr. Cornette said that Dr. Harold Stern, director of the Freer Gallery of Art, part of the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, hoped to be here for the ceremony.

To even enter the press box a reporter or other authorized person must have a press pass. To make sure that no unauthorized person enters , Roger Smith, a West Texas State shot putter, watches and checks the passes of those persons entering.

The press and the statistician crew make up only a small portion of the many people that are vital to the press box.

There is a clock-keeper and a scoreboard keeper, both of whom must keep an eagle-eye on the game officials. The voice that booms the vital points of the game to the spectators is that of Steve Oakley, a former television sportscaster and now an insurance salesman.

For the members of the working press there is a concession stand at which chili, coffee and cokes are provided at no charge. WTSU Sports Information Director Tommy Bryant explains, "Most members of the press work in their offices until just before game time and do not have an opportunity to eat before they come to the game, so we provide this service to them."

The main press room of the press box consists of three decks. The lower level is for newspaper writers, radio men and visiting dignitaries. The second level is for a Western Union operator and visiting scouts both college and professional. The third level is for the statistician crew.

Along with the stats crew is a man operating a public address system that is heard only in the press box. He announces the ball carrier and the yardage made each play and other vital statistics.

Both schools (WT and the opposing team) have coach's booths. Each coach's booth has two field phones which go to the team benches. From this vantage point coaches are able to advise the coaches on the playing field of weaknesses in the opposing team as well as their own.

In top level of the press box is a filming booth. Each game is filmed by the Buffs, the opposing team, an Amarillo television station and occasionally another television station.

The Buffalo band also films their pregame and halftime performances, as does a visiting band occasionally.

Finally on the top of the press box are members of the Texas Highway Patrol, the Canyon City Police and the WTSU Security Department.

The peace officers are present to observe and control the crowd.

At every Buffalo game representatives from at least three newspapers and three radio stations are present.

To keep all the machinery in operating order an electrician, a maintenance man and a Bell Telephone Co. representative are present.

Bryant recalled an ABC television crew that invaded the press box in 1969," they had come to televise the West Texas State and New Mexico State game, and they brought at least 20 extra people into the press box. There were five newspapers represented and three radio stations. One of the radio stations had to broadcast from the top of the press box it was so crowded.

"We do all this so we can get better and more accurate coverage of the Buff football games," Bryant said.

But while the fans below loudly support their team, the unwritten law of the press box remains—silence.

Eagles. . .

about seven points a game scored against them this year."

Before the 1971 season began, many sports writers picked Levelland as the team to beat, but thus far have not come up to those predictions.

The Lobos should line up in the wishbone, the I and the power I formations. The team utilized the wishbone almost completely last year, but have used the I more often than not this year. To help move the ball from the I formation the Lobos have two "very strong guards," according to Mills.

The defensive front line is main-stayed by a 220-pound defensive tackle who Mills also rated as very good.

"They should be about the same strength team as Clovis," Mills concluded.

Buffs. . .

slowed down some, he will play against the Vandals.

Quarterback Ed Holwig, injured in the University of Texas at Arlington game two weeks ago, will probably not start, but could see some action.

But the Buffs now have red shirt sophomore, Ron Leach to fall back on in the quarter back slot. Up until last week Leach had yet to play down of varsity ball, but he quarterbacked the Buffs every offensive down against the Huskies and was named player of the week for his efforts.

Leach passed for 125 yards against the Huskies and rushed for 125 more, 65 yards of which came on one touchdown scamper.

Sophomore running back Billy Pritchett upped his five game rushing total to 569 yards to regain the Missouri Valley Conference lead in that category.

Mayfield praised lineback er-offensive guard Bill McKinney at the Monday night meeting saying, "Bill graded around 73 percent against the Huskies and I think the closest grade to him was about 20 points below that.

"Gosh, but Bill had a great game. He was just outstanding on offense as a guard and played his usual good game at linebacker. He is a well conditioned athlete and is capable of staying on the field longer than most players.

"McKinney and defensive end Walter Hibbler had plenty of big plays for us," Mayfield added.

The Buff mentor said that he was mainly impressed with the size of the Vandals. "Idaho is coming off four wins and must have things going right. They have quick running backs in Frank Doctor and Fred Riley, who broke O.J. Simpson's junior college rushing records. Both quarterbacks Rick Seefried and Tom Ponciano are good throwers. The thing which mainly impresses me however, are their size, strength and record. Idaho is a physical ball club. The victory over Montana was especially impressive.

West Texas State University Board of Regents will meet briefly Saturday to determine an architect for the proposed library and science buildings.

According to financial vice president Virgil Henson, the regents will be on the WT campus for Homecoming activities and a short meeting will be held Saturday.

Texas Senate Areas Listed

Texas Senate districts were released this week by the Texas Legislative Redistricting Board, and Randall County has been placed in District 31 with 25 other Panhandle counties.

The district has 368,160 total population, which is a 1.9 per cent increase over the last district division.

Counties included in District 31 are Armstrong, Bailey, Carson, Castro, Collingsworth, Dallam, Deaf Smith, Donley, Gray, Hansford, Hartley, Hemphill, Hockley, Hutchinson, Lamb, Lipscomb, Moore, Ochiltree, Oldham, Parmer, Potter, Randall, Roberts, Sherman, Swisher and Wheeler.

The district breakdown will be effective for the 1972 elections, according to LeRoy Hutton, Randall County Clerk.

Putt Powell, an institution in Panhandle sports circles, is served a bowl of hot chili at the hospitality booth in the press box.

Golf Tournament To Be Held Here

The first annual Canyon Country Club Partnership Golf tourney will be held October 30-31, according to Bobby Westfall, course pro.

There will be no qualifying rounds, as the teams will be flighted and scores counted toward the two-day total. Competition will be in 16 team flights in the 36 hole low ball, medal play tourney.

Both day's play will start from shotgun starts at 8:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. Entrants may chose either time on Saturday, but will tee off on Sunday according to flights.

Entry fee is $30 per team and prizes are: $200 for first place; $150 for second and $100 for third in each flight.

There will be a special "Duffer's Flight". To be eligible each member of the team must have a minimum 16 handicap and each team must have a minimum 36 handicap. All golfers must have an attested handicap from their home course prefessional to enter this flight.

Westfall said that there was a limited number of carts available for the tourney, so cart reservations must be made early.

Entry deadline is 7 p.m. Oct. 29. Entries may be mailed to the Canyon Country Club, Box 213, Canyon 79015.

STOP PLAYING WITH ARTHRITIS
Some day, a cure will be found for Arthritis, a disease which so far has evaded the efforts of thousands of research workers, who are trying to solve this universal problem.
Stop trying every new pain reliever advertised by the medicine men who apparently promise much in their ads and television commercials. Analyze what they say and you can see they definitely offer you little help. Place yourself in your physician's care. Visit him at the regular intervals he suggests. Let him prescribe the medicines he thinks will do you the most good. He is an expert.
YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound and dispense yours?

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Arthur Dinkins of Shreveport. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Preston Burgess of Canyon are the parents of the groom.

The single-ring ceremony was read by Father John Welch before an altar decorated with magnolia leaves.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Nancy Alice Dinkins. The maid of honor's dress was of Nile green alaskine trimmed with candleglow cluny lace at the sides of the V-neckline which continued to the Empire waist. The long sleeves were trimmed with matching lace at the wrists. The gown had a dirndl skirt.

Her bouquet was of pink sweetheart roses, feathered pink carnations, and English ivy.

The best man was James Seifrid of Chicago.

The ushers were George Hardwick of Baton Rouge, Randall Fuller, the groom's cousin, of Monroe, La., and Walter Arthur Dinkins, the bride's brother.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of re-embroidered cluny lace. The Empire waist was defined by a self-belt fastened at the back with tiny covered buttons. The dress was designed and made by the bride.

The full bishop sleeves were deeply cuffed. The bodice was finished with a high Victorian collar. The gown had a dirndl skirt.

For something old, the bride wore her grandmother's diamond brooch. Her colonial bouquet was of stephanotis and English Ivy.

Music was provided by Mrs. Jim Rosner, Mrs. Jim Skarke, Mrs. Matt Albracht and Mrs. Ralph Cabe, with Mrs. Edgar Frerich at the organ.

The long sleeves were finished in wide cuffs, and appliques of white lace and pearls ornamented the gown. The bouffant finger-tip veil was attached to a band of roses and pearls. She carried her great-grandmother's wedding prayer book and a bouquet of roses, carnations and stephanotis. Her mother's wedding hankerchief was also part of her ensemble.

Concert To Feature Electronic "Collect"

A sampling of the avant-garde wave in choral music will be presented along with more traditional selections in a concert by the West Texas State University Chorale and 9:00 Chorale Sunday in the Fine Arts Theatre auditorium.

Featured in the concert, which is free to the public, will be "Collect," a contemporary choral composition by Leslie Bassett utilizing electronic tapes.

Dr. Hugh Sanders, conductor of the two choirs, says, "This work is an example of the new wave of music that is sweeping away many barriers to the imagination of composers and performers, enabling them to produce rhythms, pitch combinations and tone colors not previously heard in the concert hall."

In "Collect," the chorus has the task of fitting their choral sounds to the metronamically-conceived electronic tape, Sanders says.

"While it may take a period of adjustment for the listener's ear," he says, "the reward seems great in the realization of aesthetic values not gained before theunion of tape and voices."

Works scheduled for performance by the 9:00 Chorale include Pfautsch's "I Thank You, God," Thompson's "The Paper Reeds by the Brooks" and Kodaly's "The Peacock."

Those programmed by the WTSU Chorale include Bernstein's "Warm-Up," DiLasso's "Eccolied," Vaughn Williams' "The Turtle Dove," Brahms' "Liebeslieder Walzer" and "Collect."

The combined choirs will perform Hanson's "Beat, Beat, Drums."

Troupe To Present Japanese Folklore

A delicate tapestry of Japanese folklore and mythology will be woven in music and pantomine by the Taneo Wakayama Repertory Troupe of Tokyo Monday at West Texas State University.

The eight-member troupe, described as "one of Tokyo's intangible treasures," will perform at 8 p.m. in the Old Administration Building auditorium.

The troupe will also present a special lecture-demonstration open to students, faculty and Canyon residents at 3 p.m. Monday in the same auditorium.

In its masked plays and dances, the troupe seeks to preserve the serious and humorous legends of Japan's past that have been handed down from father to son for generations, and to embody the nation's musical heritage through performance of the festival music from Edo, the name for Tokyo in the Tokugawa period from 1600-1867.

The troupe, which performs regularly in the shrines of Japan, is making its debut in the United States this year under auspices of the Performing Arts Program of the Asia Society.

Its WTSU appearance is sponsored by the Special Programs Committee. Tickets are priced at $2 for adults, $1 for non-WTSU students. Admission is free for WTSU students with ID cards, faculty and staff.

Music Department Plans Evaluation

High school students contemplating a musical future have the opportunity to receive professional evaluations and advice at the 4th Music Career Conference Nov. 13 at West Texas State University.

The conference is free to students enrolled in the 9 to 12 grades who are considering a career in music, Dr. George Umberson, head of the WTSU music department, said today.

Deadline for application is Oct. 29.

"The conference is not a contest," Umberson said, "but a means of noting the strengths and weaknesses of a student in an effort to help him prepare for study at the college level in the field of music."

The one-day conference includes administration of advisory examinations to help determine a student's aptitude and background, and individual performances before a faculty member who is a specialist in voice, piano, organ, string, woodwind, brass or percussion instruments.

Each participant will be involved in group counseling in which opportunities in music and the requirements for the various areas of the field will be discussed, Umberson said.

A complimentary luncheon will be served all participants, he said.

Applications and further information about the conference may be directed to the WTSU music department.
